2. At the time ☐ ☐ was met by ☐ ☐ the commitment was made, in AEMARSH 15's presence, that we would see to it that the intermittent relief packages would continue to ☐ ☐ In subsequent conversations with AEMARSH 15 he was informed that we would probably call upon his services from time to time in order to send an appropriate package. He was not to take any of the initiative in this matter but was to await specific instructions informing him when and what to mail. We had intended to communicate with you in the near future requesting you have AEMARSH 15 prepare and mail a package containing suit material and medicines, so there has been no actual harm done by AEMARSH 15 "jumping the gun". We would appreciate, however, if at your next meeting with him, you remind him that he is to wait for instructions before mailing any packages to either of the ☐ ☐

3. We are concerned lest too frequent packages of too high a value cause unfavorable attention to be drawn to the recipient (a maildrop of ☐ ☐ by the RUS.
